Elisa: Hi Kaede, if you are free, why don't we go on a trip to Mimata town? I have two MIMATOWN PASSPORTs.

Kaede: Hi Elisa, I also want to play with you. Today, I (③) nothing to do, so let's go on a trip, but I don't know where Mimata is. Is there something fun there? And, have you ever (④) there?

Elisa: It sounds great! In Mimata, there are many things to do. MIMATOWN PASSPORT is a new touring project in Mimata town. You can check its passport on the official website of Mimata town hall.

Kaede: Okay, let me open the web. Now, I'm checking. Wow, it seems so exciting. Then, let's go to more than 3 areas.

Elisa: Great! I recommend you to go shopping at MIMATA PREMIUM OUTLET, too. This was newly opened last month.

Kaede: Umm, I have never visited Mimata town, so I can't decide where to go, but No. (⑤) would be the most interesting place because I am interested in learning the history of Mimata town.

Elisa: Okay, then let's go there too. I want to go to MIMATA SUMMER LABO in OUBIGAKUEN with you. There are many summer science projects, and there is MIMATA FLOWER GARDEN inside of OUBIGAKUEN. Don't you think there is also going to be fun?

Kaede: It sounds so exciting. Let's go both. How about our lunch?

Elisa: You are right. MIMATAN NIKU TOWN has many restaurants but today it is closed, so instead of going there, how about MIMATA UMA E-YO?

Kaede: I have seen it on the news! Let's eat lunch there!

Elisa: Perfect! There are two more lunch places which are not included in the list of MIMATOWN PASSPORT; MIMATAN FISHERMAN'S HOUSE and MIMATA BEGITABEL, but let's try to go both next time!

Kaede: Okay, then see you there! We need (⑥) yen.

Ⅳ 次の英文を読み、以下の各問に答えなさい。

Do you know the proverb “Everything comes to him who waits”? It means that if you wait patiently, good chances and good luck will come your way.

Ed Dwight was born in 1933 in Kansas City. When he was a child, he enjoyed building toy planes in his backyard and working with his hands. After entering elementary school, he worked as a newspaperman. One day, while delivering newspapers, he read an article about Dayton Ragland. Dayton was a black man from Kansas City and a pilot in the United States Air Force. Dwight was surprised that black men worked near airplanes. In those days, black people were discriminated against, so ① (difficult / get / them / to / was / for / it) a job. Dwight was proud of Dayton and decided to get the same job. After graduating from college, he became an Air Force pilot in 1953. Dwight trained hard to be a Fighter pilot and also studied engineering.

In the 1960s, ② the U.S. government (skilled / pilots / than / more / needed) those in the Soviet Union. President John F. Kennedy and NASA selected 14 candidates from the Air Force and scientists. Kennedy also wanted to solve the racial problem, so he selected black pilots as a bridge between other races. As a result, Dwight was selected as the first Black astronaut candidate. Unfortunately, however, he wasn't selected because Kennedy was killed. After that, Dwight retired from the Air Force and became a businessman. Sixty years later, Blue Origin, an American aerospace manufacturer, invented a manned space flight. An NPO supported this business and selected astronauts. At the age of ninety, Dwight got a chance to go to space. On May 19, 2024, he flew on Blue Origin's New Shepard and experienced weightlessness for ten minutes. He became the oldest person to fly in space at 90 years 8 months and 10 days. He called it “a life challenging experience.” He said “I thought I really didn't need this in my life... I am ecstatic.”
